

FIRST PEOPLES'
CULTURAL COUNCIL

Expanding Capacity in the Indigenous Music Recording Industry 2018/19 - 6 projects being awarded $156,600

APPLICANT	AFFILIATION	PROJECT DESCRIPTION	CITY	AWARD
Jeremy Pahl	Gitga'at	to gain knowledge and experience in recording live & in-studio performances with the intention of serving the Prince Rupert music community in the future.	Prince Rupert	$30,000
Scott Spicker	Metis	to receive audio engineering training from Tom Dobrzanski at Monarch studios in Vancouver to improve Scott's ability as an audio engineer.	Sooke	$30,000
Damien Ketlo	6(1) Status Carrier First Nation	to record, engineer & produce a single with Indigenous group Kedah Clan while apprenticing under Little Big studios.	Fort Fraser	$30,000
Craig Edwards	Nanoose First Nations	to support my participation in the BC Music Industry through arranging and composing music for a studio album and record a demo to secure funding.	Lantzville	$9,600
Jonah Natral	Cree/Squamish Nation	Jonah Natrall will be producing and recording an album, as well as setting up his own recording studio.	North Vancouver	$30,000
Derek Edenshaw	Haida, Cree/Metis	Derek Edenshaw will be mentored by Edwin Bergsson in the art of mixing and mastering.	Vancouver	$27,000
TOTAL AMOUNT				$156,600