LANGUAGE REVITALIZATION COACHES

Kathi Dickie, Glenn Jim, Magie-Mae Adams

OVERVIEW

In our role as Language Revitalization Coaches, we support First Nation communities and organizations to build up language revitalization initiatives through strategic language planning and by increasing access to FPCC tools, resources, and funding.

Kathi Dickie

A Fort Nelson First Nation member, Dene, born and raised in my community, involved in community development (education, political, wellness) for over 30 years, and served on various boards as an extension of this work.

TE,LI,MET,ʔTEN Glenn Jim

I am WSÁNEĆ from WSÍKEM (Tseycum) First Nation in North Saanich. I grew up listening to stories about the work my family (Elders) did for the WSÁNEĆ. This encouraged me to look at the needs of my community as I grew up, which led me into helping in those areas.

Quee-i-sook Thul-la-me-eh Magie-Mae Adams

I am WSÁNEĆ and Lingít, residing on the Coastal Ts'msyen territory in Prince Rupert, B.C. My background includes providing effective capacity development that is created from community-based approaches that honour the knowledge and expertise within community.
