Introduction

The First Peoples' Cultural Council's (FPCC) Funding Recipient List is produced in coordination with the FPCC Year in Review 2024-25. This list details the funding delivered by FPCC through grants programs to First Nations individuals and organization across B.C. In the tables below, you will find the list of programs, the recipients, communities, project descriptions and amounts delivered. More information on FPCC Language, Arts and Heritage Programs may be found at fpcc.ca. For questions about FPCC funding and programs please contact info@pcc.ca.

Language Program

Reclaiming My Language

Reclaiming My Language is a course to support silent speakers as they reclaim their language and begin speaking again. The program is based on a successful initiative developed in Norway and Sweden by and for the Indigenous Sami peoples. FPCC adapted the program through pilot projects with First Nations communities in B.C.

Adult Immersion & Skills Training

The Adult Immersion & Skills Training supports professional development for language program administrators and their trainees, as well as language immersion teacher trainees. FPCC provided funding to immersion programs in B.C. to support their teacher trainees to become skilled adult immersion teachers. Teacher trainees are typically students who have completed the immersion program and are currently working as teaching assistants in the program with the goal of becoming teachers themselves.

Státimcets	Pa'La7Wit Society of the Lower Lillooet Lake	Samahquam Nation, Skatin Nations, Xa'xtsa (Douglas First Nation)	We will continue documenting our cultural protocols, a project we started in 2023. Historically our protocols were passed down through experience, but colonization and modern technology have disrupted traditions about what information can be shared with whom. We want to organize the information we've collected (written, audio and video) and prioritize how to share what we have. We need to find a balance between reaching as many people as possible while respecting who shouldn't have access to that knowledge.	$11,250.00
